1963-64 School Year Lines Up With Fall Registration

A record enrollment of 633 students signed up on August 29, 1963, to attend PHS for the 1963-1964 school year. Going from the end of one line to the start of another, students spent time and money to enroll in classes and activities, and to obtain cafeteria tickets, a Powwow and Panther subscription, an activity ticket and other items.

In and Around PHS

Exciting happenings throughout the year

Orange crepe paper bows, designed and made by Cheryl Kessel, were the order of the day for this sampling of senior girls during PHS Clean-up Week on Orange and Black Day.

Craig Beck, a three year football letterman, is shown here trying in vain to fight off a Worland Warrior's illegal grasp on the face bar. Craig played both halfback and fullback this year before he suffered a knee injury and was forced to miss the last two games of the season. He also was elected co-captain of the '64 team.

Tollman Chosen to

Jerry Tollman (Cowboy) was awarded the "Lee Boocking Trophy" this year climaxing his third year of outstanding performance in varsity football for P.H.S. Last season Jerry was selected to both All-Conference and All-State teams as tackle. This year, however, he was converted into a fullback. With only two games remaining in the season Jerry was moved back to his familiar position of tackle where he once again repeated as All-Conference tackle and honorable mention to All-State.

Here Jerry is shown going wide in the Worland game, playing in his new role as fullback. Jerry was also a unanimous choice for captain of the team.

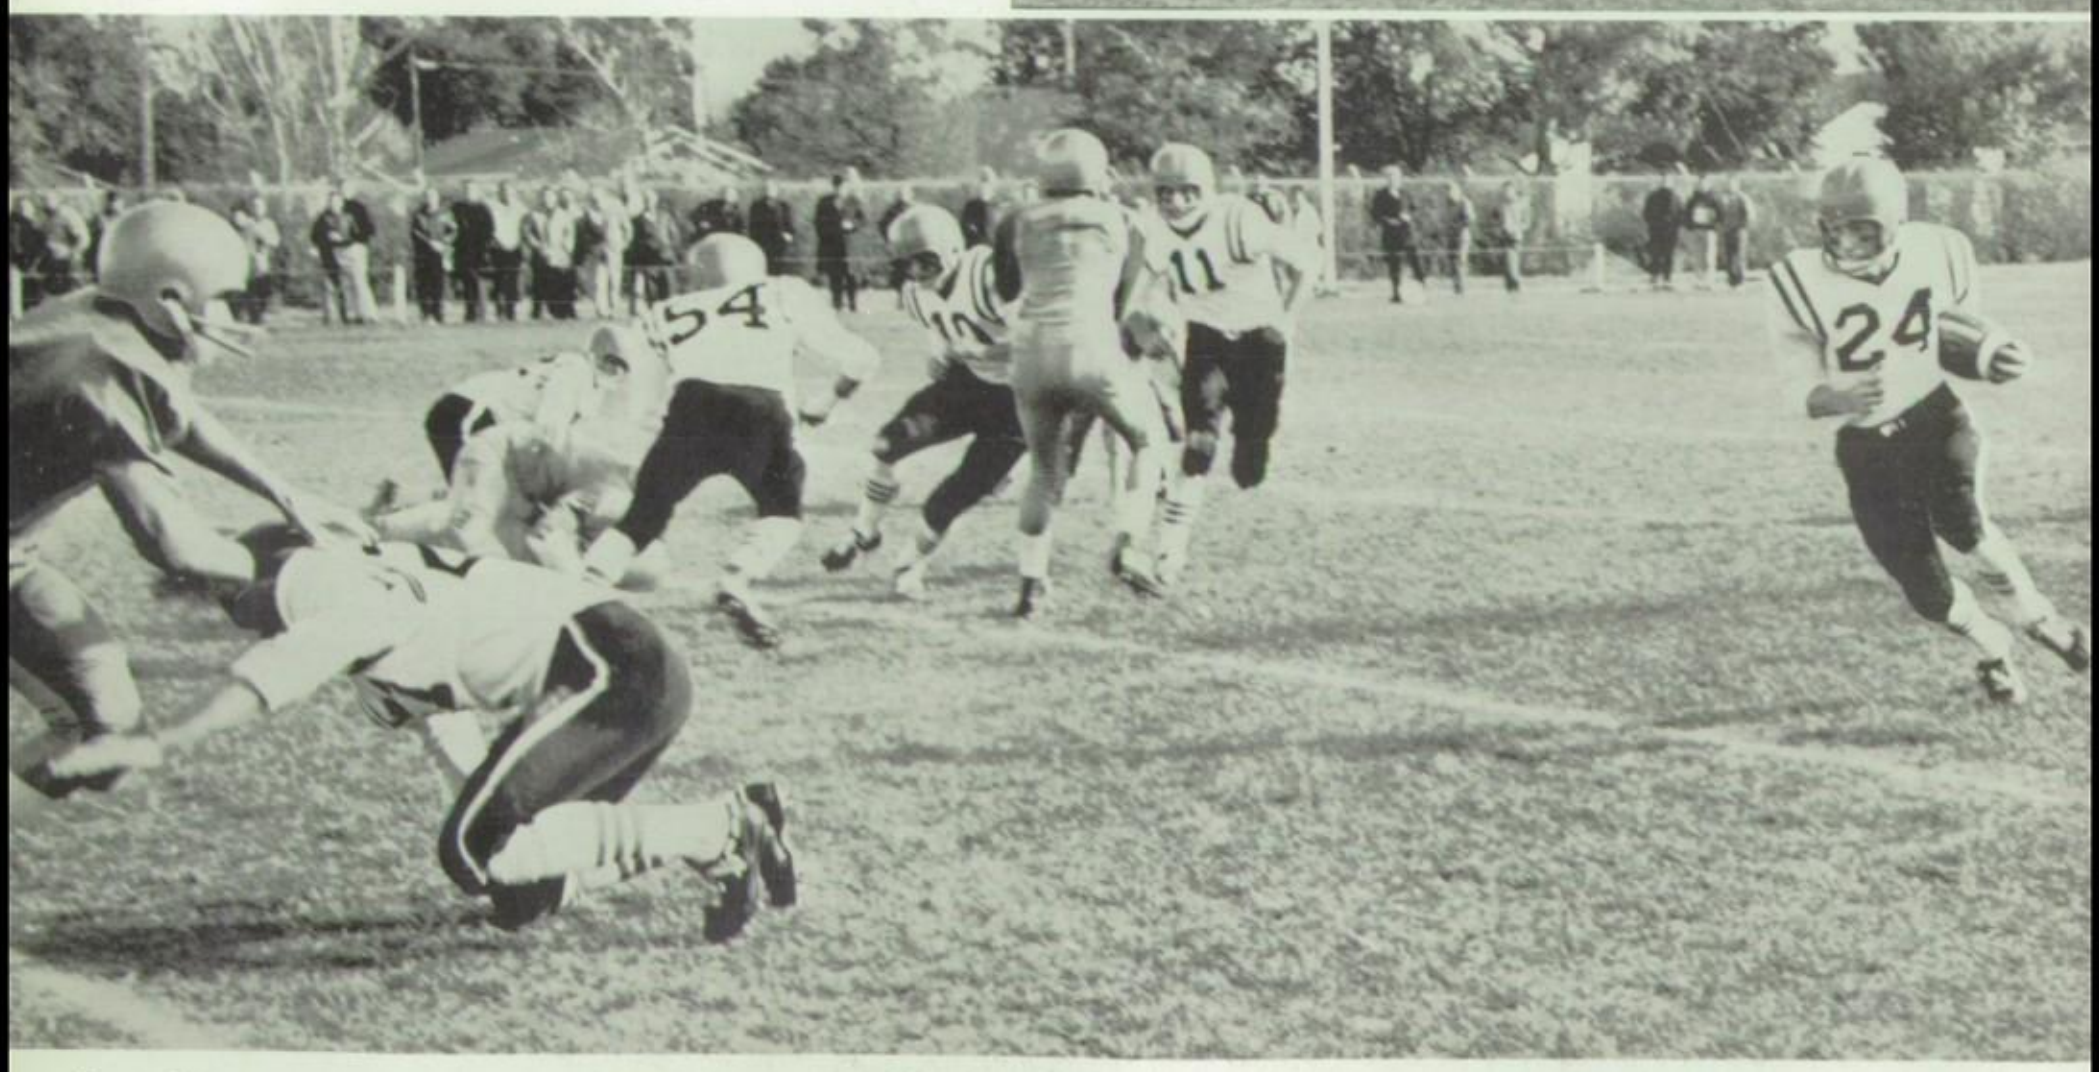
Larry Hart and Gene Shuler "skip along hand-in-hand" to investigate a pile-up in the Homecoming Game against Greybull.

Ron Olson tries to outrun two Cody defenders after receiving a pass in the afternoon contest.



Larry Hart, a consistent ground gainer for the Panthers the past two seasons, is shown heading for a big hole opened in the Cody game.

Football Letters

Senior co-captain Dan Bovee fights for yardage in the Cody game. Dan, a three year letterman, played both quarterback and halfback this year.

An unidentified Panther jars the ball loose from a Cody Bronc. This is one of only two Cody fumbles as compared to seven for Powell.

End Jack Adams is shown just after snagging a long pass. Jack was the leading receiver on the team this season.

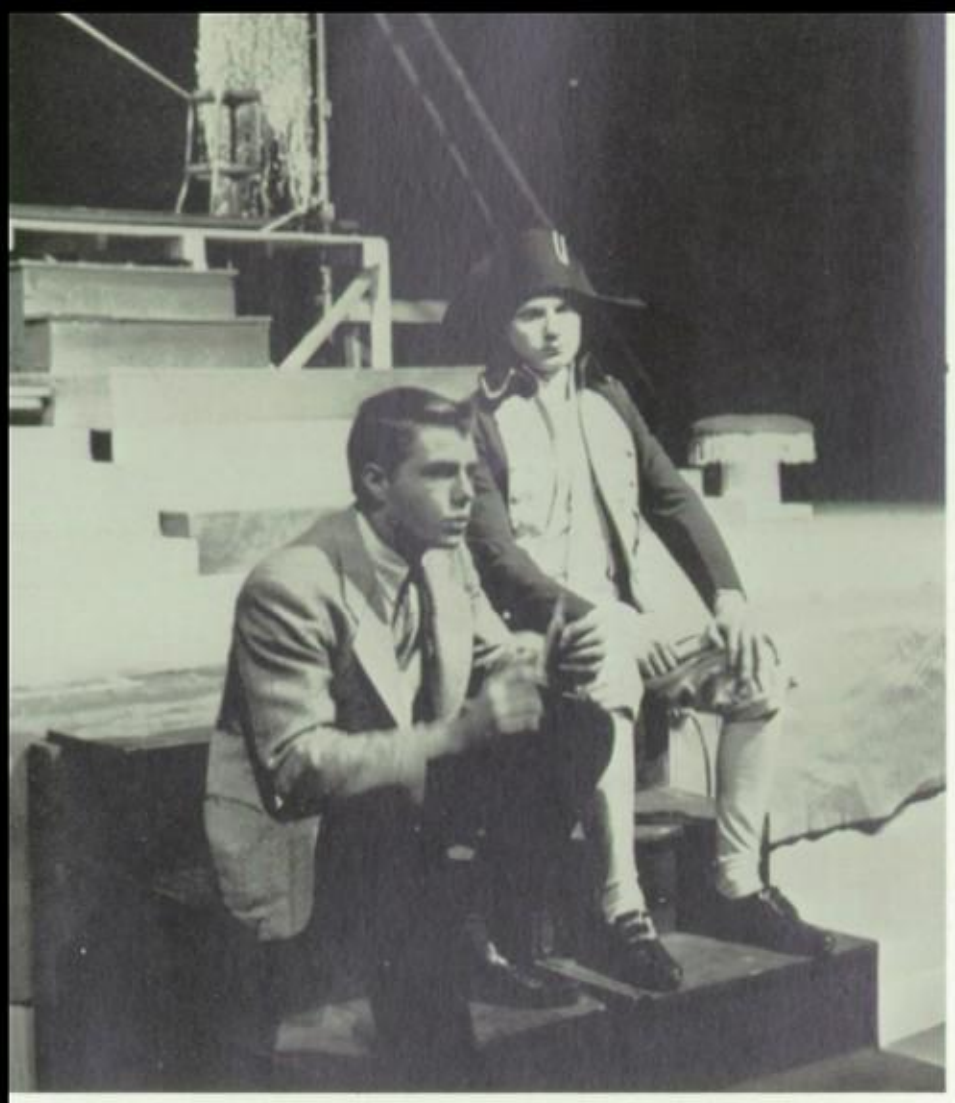
The Chinese Wall, by Max Frish is an experiment into science, history, and the future. The playwright is a Swiss architect who, though he has a very limited experience with writing, has managed to produce two daring avant-grade plays.

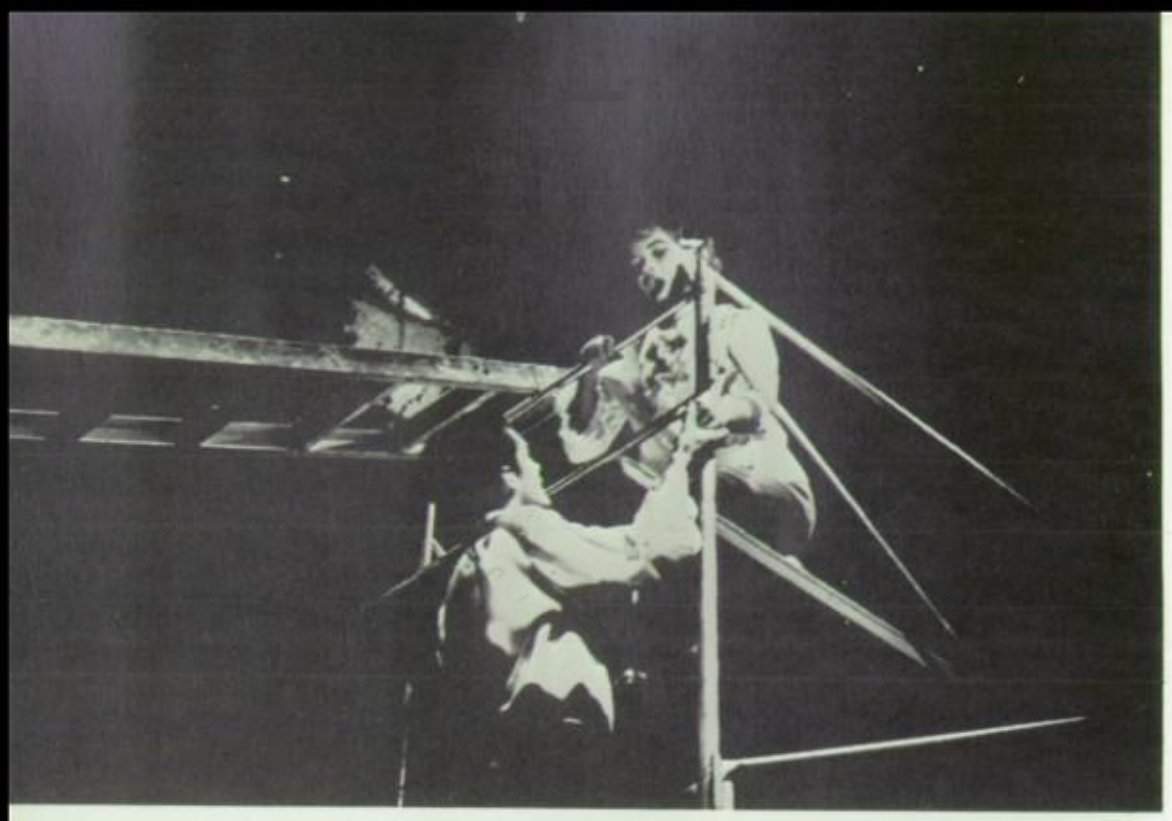
The presence of this collection of famous historical figures from life and literature is explained by Einstein's theory of relativity. The color spectacle, and intensity of the costumes, set, and dialogue, held the audience in stunned and surprised interest. This adventure into the future of theater, proved to be highly successful for the Powell High School Drama Department. The production was directed by Gordon Wickstrom.



"Whoever sits on a throne today holds the human race in his hand—Shown are Tom Frazier as The Contemporary and Keith Kohnke as Napoleon Bonaparte.

"I am curious. So often I like what Papa considers bad! I'd like to see Min Ko! Shown are: Cathy Kurtz as Mee Lan and Linda Baxter as Siu.

First course: Soup of young tender bamboo sprouts, horse-radish sprinkled with dew from morning roses, fattened duck liver with rice wine, pheasant 'a la Peking, pomegranates in Siamese vinegar, stewed swallows' nests—shown are Rex Crumrine as Pilate, Dick Hutzenbiler as Da Hing Yen I, Jack Learned as Don Juan, Susan Onstine as L'Inconnue, John Hawley as Columbus, and Tom Fraizer as The Contemporary.



"Oh, Romeo, beloved Romeo!"

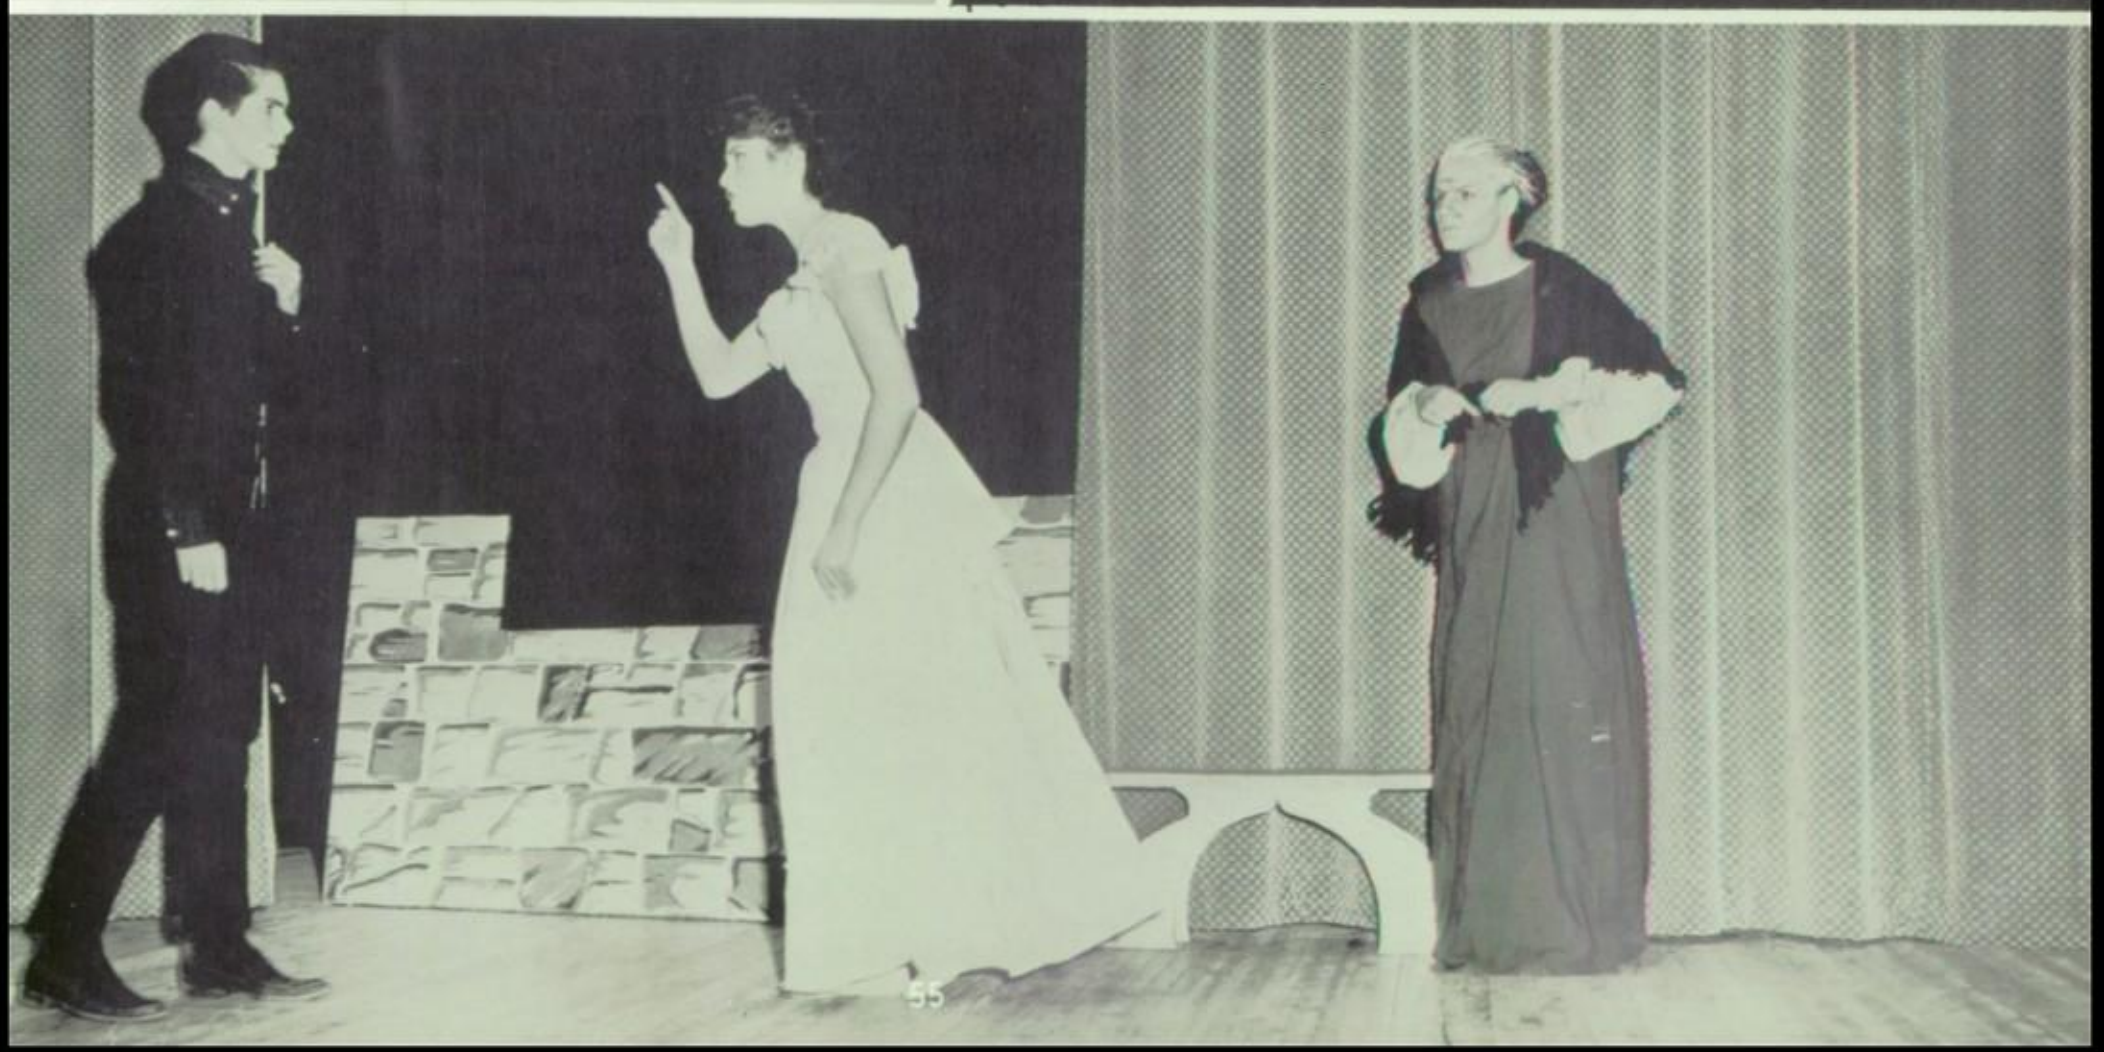
"Sganarelle"

by Moliere

"Oh, what a pack of Idiots we are. To let our Manly Honour be dependent on something so unstable, so unsure, so fickle, so inconstant as a woman. One only has to stop and think about it. They get the pleasure, and we suffer for it. They commit the folly, we appear the fools. I mean! Looked at like that—the thing's absurd. Confound 'em! The whole thing's very awkward."

Directed by Miss Regina Oliver, the play received a superior at District and an outstanding at State.



The Latin Club joined the French Club and Spanish Club to sing Christmas carols.

They went to teachers' houses in the backs of pickups and sang carols in their respective languages. Afterwards they had a party and refreshments of the traditional homemade ice cream. John Hawley brought the ice cream freezer and Judy Rockhold furnished the cream.

Denny Earhart and Sharon Ando are crowned Jupiter and Juno at the annual Latin Club banquet.

Latin Students Celebrate

The excitement of the banquet appears to be too much for Miss Petty.

The Latin classes wore togas to school during Latin Week.

National Latin Week

DOLLY MADISON'S VANILLA ICE CREAM

Cook 2 cups sugar, 6 whole eggs, 2 tablespoons flour and 1 quart whole milk to a thin custard and then take off and cool. Put mixture in a gallon freezer and preferably add 3 teas. vanilla at this time. Then put in enough cream to fill nearly to the top of the freezer—should take at least one full quart.

This recipe has been in the Petty family at least 100 years and came originally from a recipe printed in the county paper in 1863. The recipe has also been seen in old Southern cookbooks. It's fun to freeze and delicious to eat.

Marla McGlathery, Ken Jahner, and Joy Miller are eating some of the yummy homemade ice cream, which is a tradition at Latin Club banquets.

Members of the Spanish Club take time out after smashing the Christmas piñata to stow away some of their goodies.

Los Conquistadores sell popcorn, learn the language and culture, and complete the year with an Enchilada supper finale.

Barry Iverson, replete with enchiladas, looks as though a siesta would be in order.

Malcolm Tervo takes his turn at swinging, blindfolded, for the Santa Claus piñata and trying to break it.

The Enchilada Supper was a gala evening of fun and frolic for all the members of the Spanish Club. The homemadę enchiladas were served with milk, lettuce, tomatoes, and a relish plate, with ice cream (soothing!) for dessert. Afterwards Miss Guy, a student teacher, related her experiences during her year in Spain.

The Sixth Chapter in the State

Sandy Hiller, president of the newly formed Powell chapter of FBLA, receives the gavel from the president of Lander's chapter. Watching are Lander and Powell officers and sponsors. Powell's chapter of FBLA was organized October 8, 1963, and installed November 2, 1963, by Lander High School FBLA officers and sponsors.

FBLA is the National Youth Organization for high school and college students enrolled in business subjects. It is sponsored by the National Business Education Association, a department of the National Education Association. There must be ten chapters in a state before a state chapter can be formed. Powell is the sixth in Wyoming. Some of their purposes are to develop competent, aggressive business leadership; encourage members in the development of individual projects and in establishing themselves in business; strengthen the confidence of young men and women in themselves and their work; develop character, prepare for useful citizenship, foster patriotism; and encourage improvement in scholarship and promote school loyalty.

Wrestlers

Crowd pleaser, Ray Lee, gets one of his many season pins. Ray took third place his Junior year at District and this year he moved up to second. He also was the highest scoring wrestler on this year's team for individual points.

Have Winning Season

In a tough Western Regional Tournament held in Worland, only four boys qualified for the State Tournament in Cody. These boys were Tucker Fulton, Bill Hart, Tom Frazier, and Ray Lee. Worland dominated the district meet as Powell came in sixth out of fifteen teams. At State, however, Laramie took team honors, followed by Casper, and Lovell captured third.

This year's team compiled an 8-6 season record for Coach Baugh's last year of head wrestling coach. In the last eight years at this position Coach Baugh has a coaching record of 78-23.

Tom Frazier is shown here with one of his many "torture holds." He has his Cody opponent in an "arm bar body press." Tom was chosen as one of the team's co-captains.

All eyes are on Coach Baugh as he explains various moves to his team during a break in the strenuous early season workouts.

Jim Betters, Powell's only individual state champion, is set for the takeoff. His championship in the 100 yd. freestyle was preceeded by a third place in the same event last year in the State Meet.

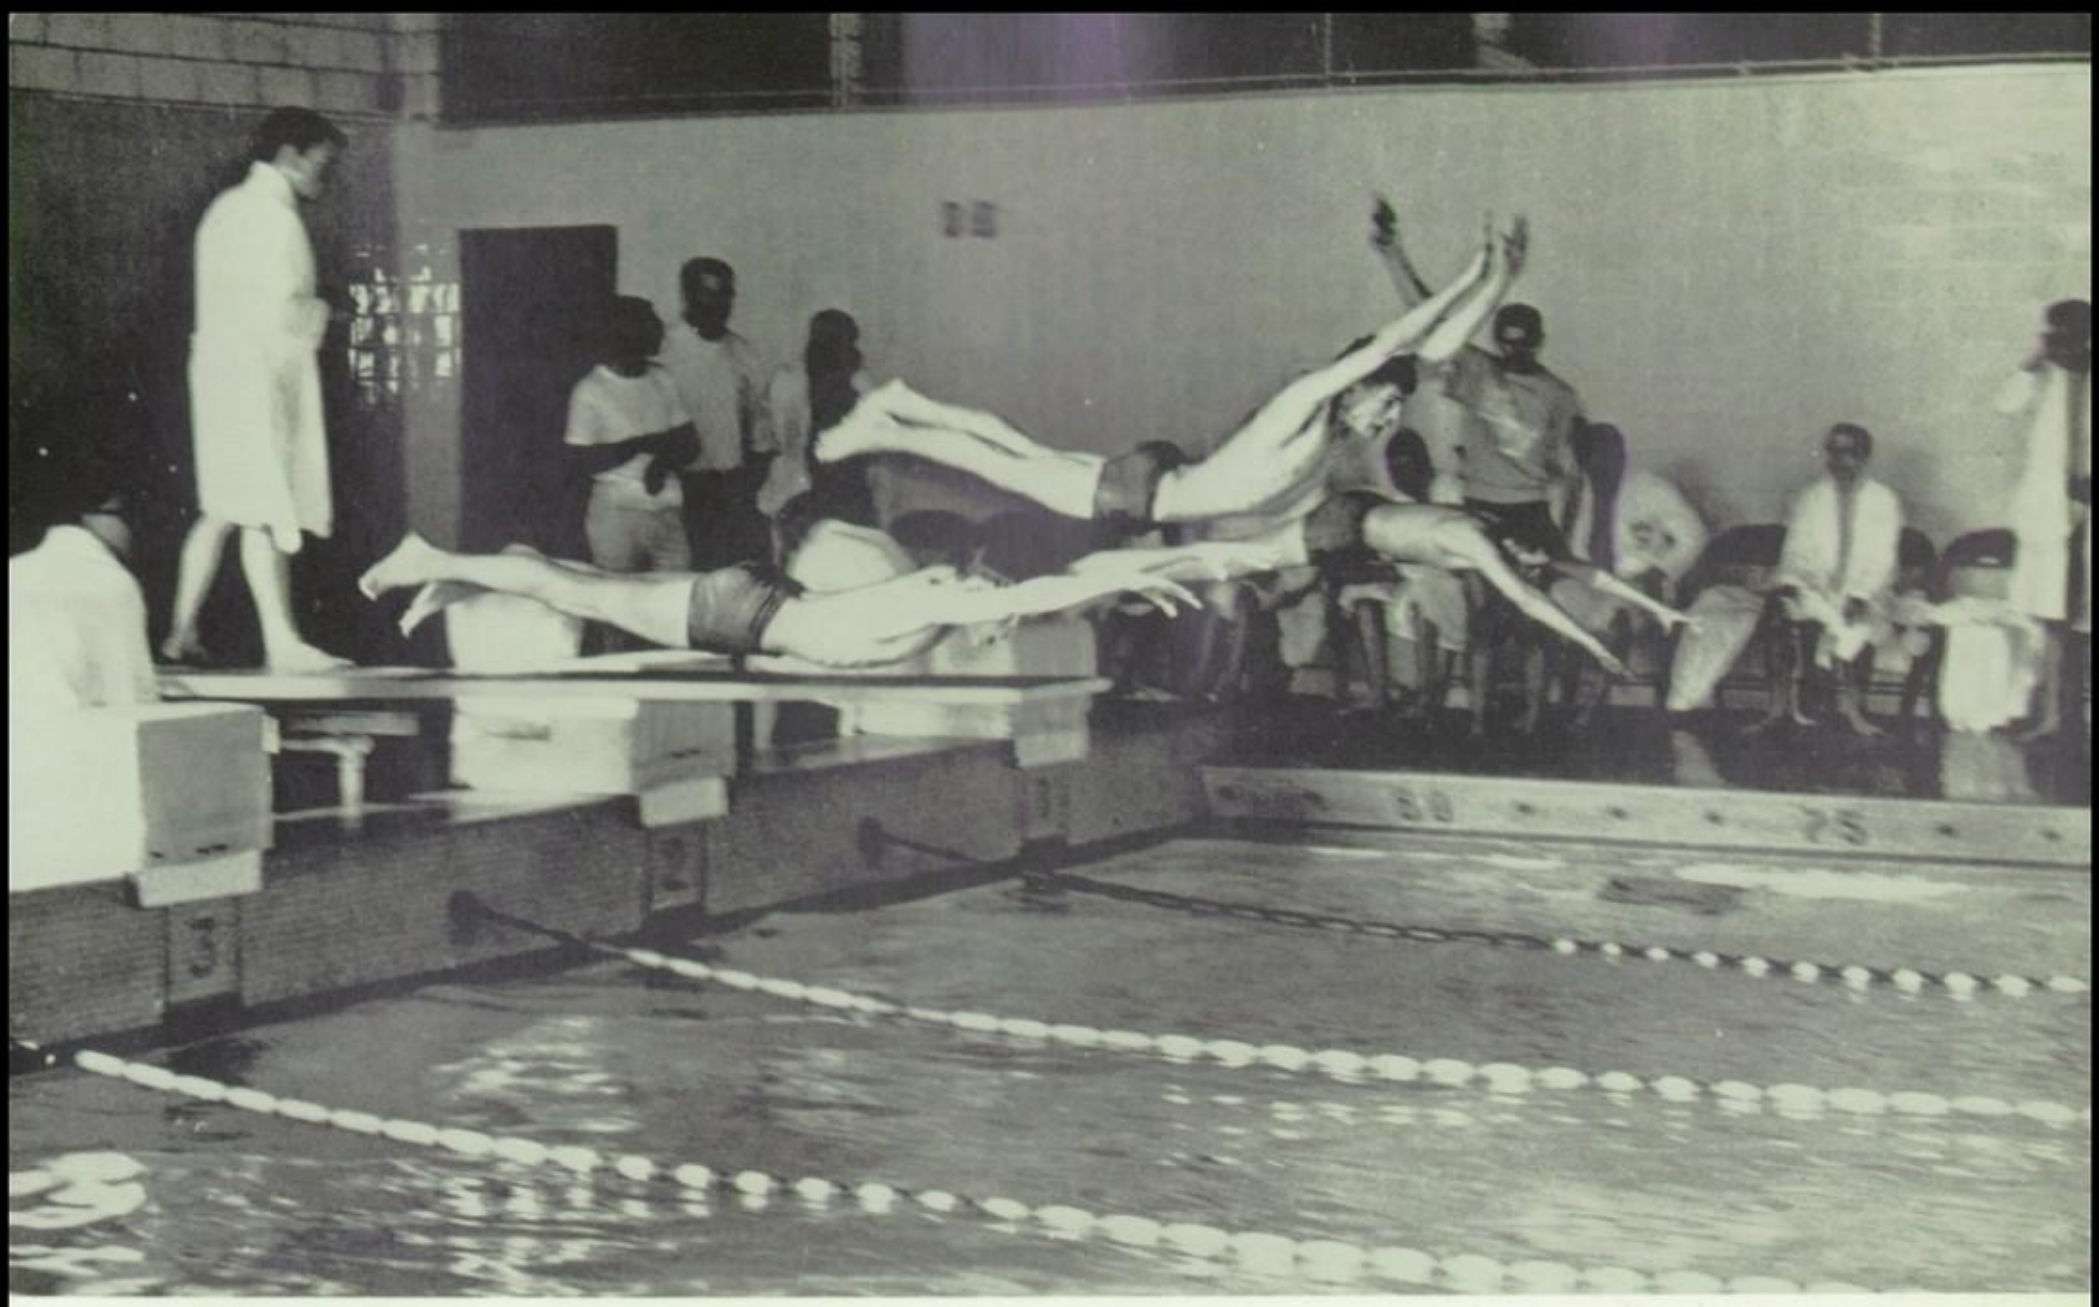
Three senior swimmers, Jerry Tolman, Larry Noble and Jim Betters, teamed up with their assistant swimming coach, Dennis Brittain, to form a team called the Denver-Chicago Truckers for the Montana AAU Swimming Championships. Mr. Brittain, former Skyline Champion, was the meet's top first place winner by winning three, bettering the Montana AAU record in the 200 yard freestyle by 6 seconds. Together the team won the feature relay event by nearly lapping the closest competitor.

Betters and Relay

Coach Gene Dozah presents Jerry Tollman with the "Outstanding Swimmer Trophy." Jerry is a four year swimming letterman and a two time individual state champion. His sophomore year he took State in the 50 yd. freestyle. The next year Jerry was State champ in the 100 yd. freestyle. This year he went back to the 50 yd. freestyle where he took third at the State Meet. All four years Jerry has been a member of the 200 yd. freestyle relay team that has been undefeated in all competition.



Front to back: Terry Durham, Steve Moore, and Brian Durham, all in their different styles, are off with the gun in the 400 yd. freestyle against Riverton.

Team Win State Titles

Bill Watts, Jim Betters, Jerry Tollman and Larry Noble make up the state champion 200 yard freestyle relay team. Jerry is the senior member of the team, having swum on it for four years. Jim and Larry are two year members, while Bill, a junior, is a first year man.

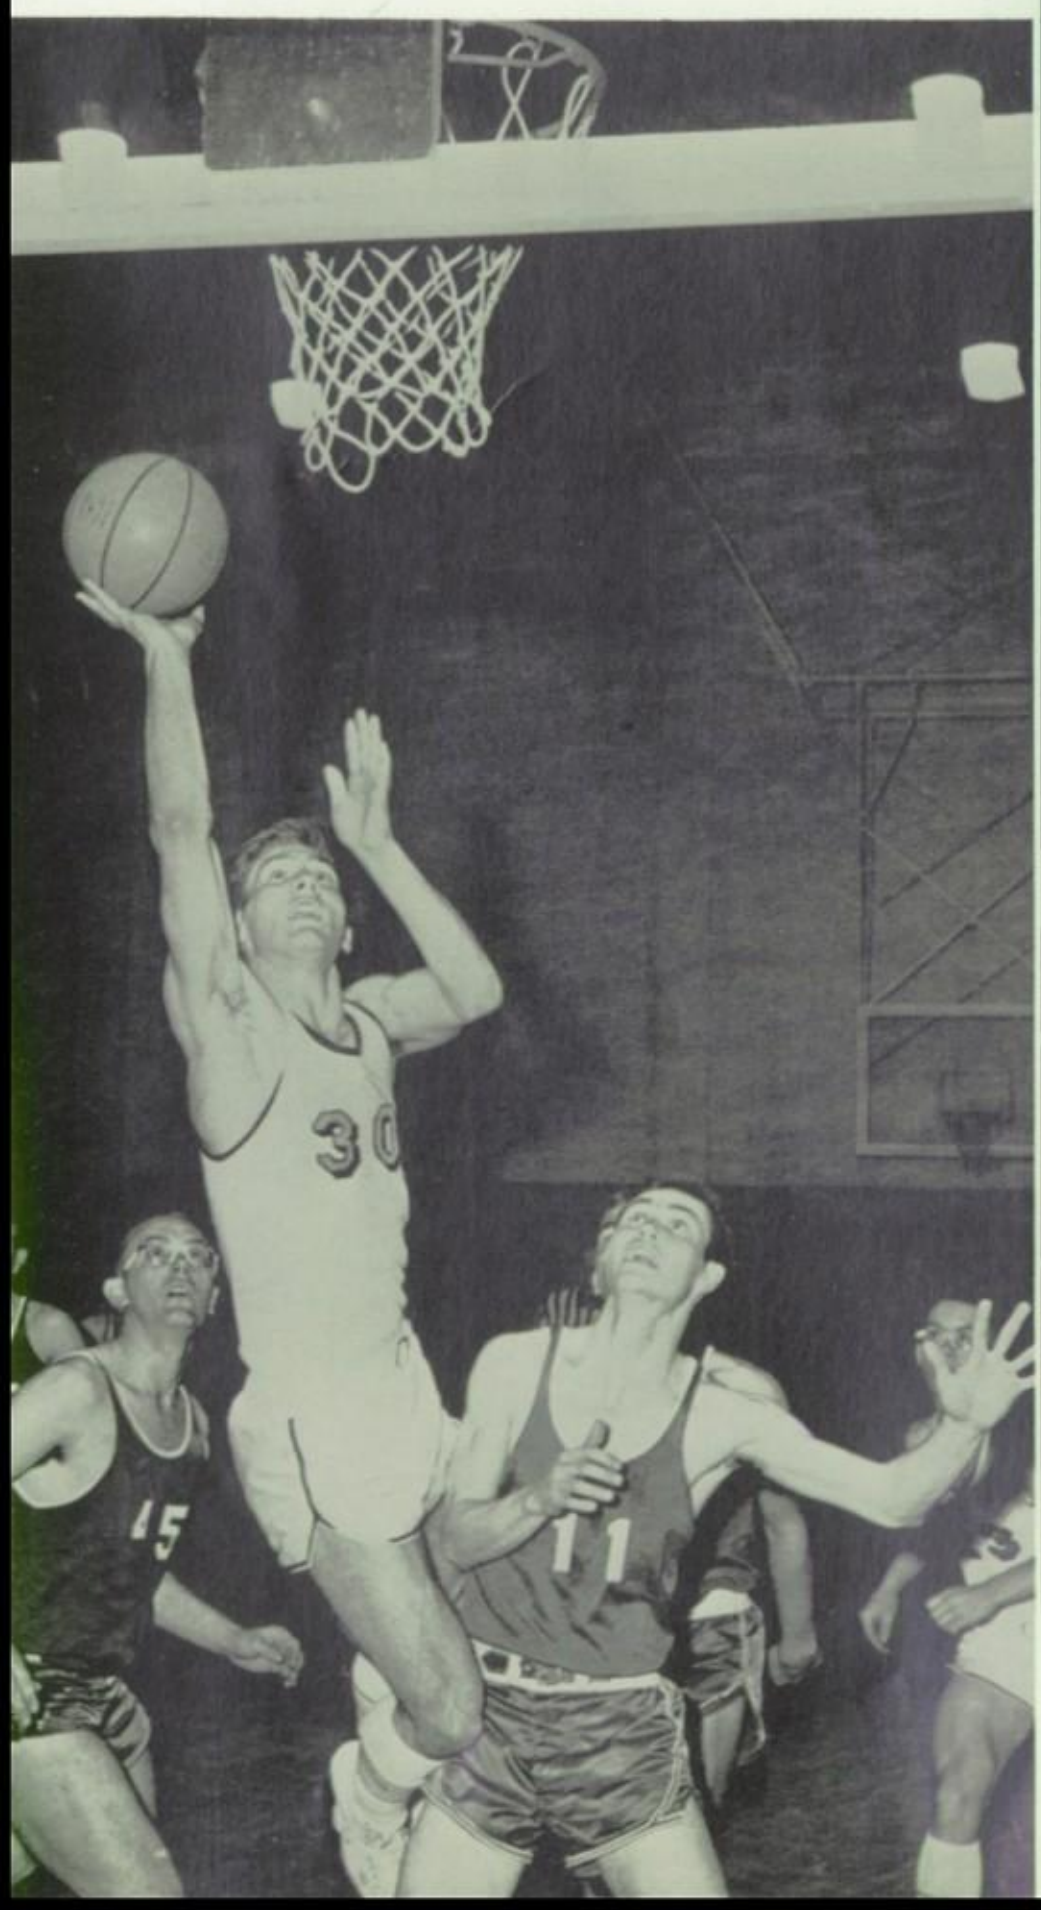
Kenny Iverson, Senior guard, gets a left-hand shot off during the Sheridan game. Kenny was the team's leading scorer with 245 points for the season. He was also chosen to the All-District team.

Tournament

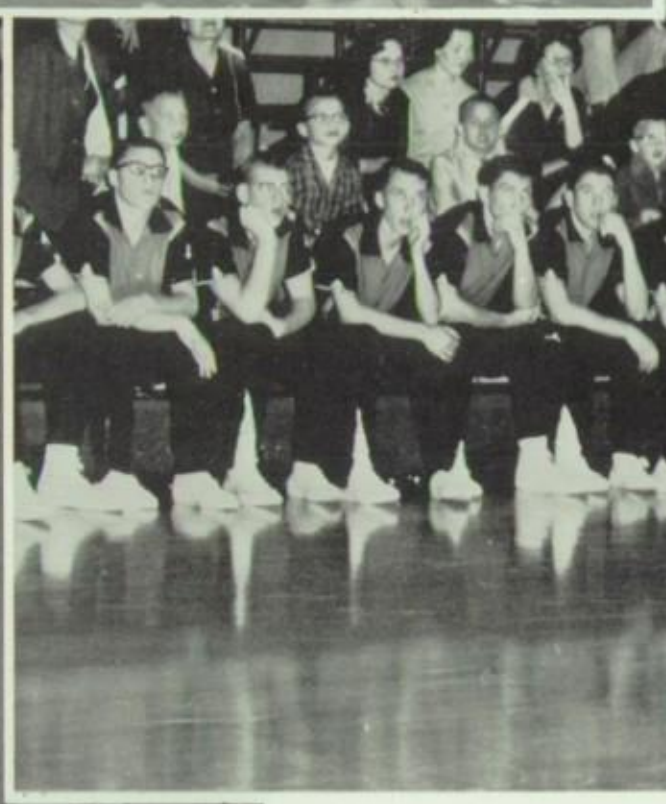
Coach Keith Bloom's Panthers started the season out slowly after losing three of last year's players to other towns. After many changes in the line-up, Powell finally found the right combination toward the end of the season, winning the last five out of six games.

Danny Bovee drives in for two points in Powell's upset victory over the Lovell Bulldogs. Danny was the recipient of the Roundtable "Rebound Trophy" for his 168 season rebounds.



Lawrence Wendling scores on a lay-up in the game with Riverton. Lawrence, a Junior, started at guard in half of the Panther games this season.

Lynn Holscher, looking more like a soccer player than a basketball player, charges down the court in the Panthers' overtime victory over Basin.



An interested Powell bench looks on as Dennis Langdon lets go with a jump shot from the corner during the Sheridan game.

Tournament Results

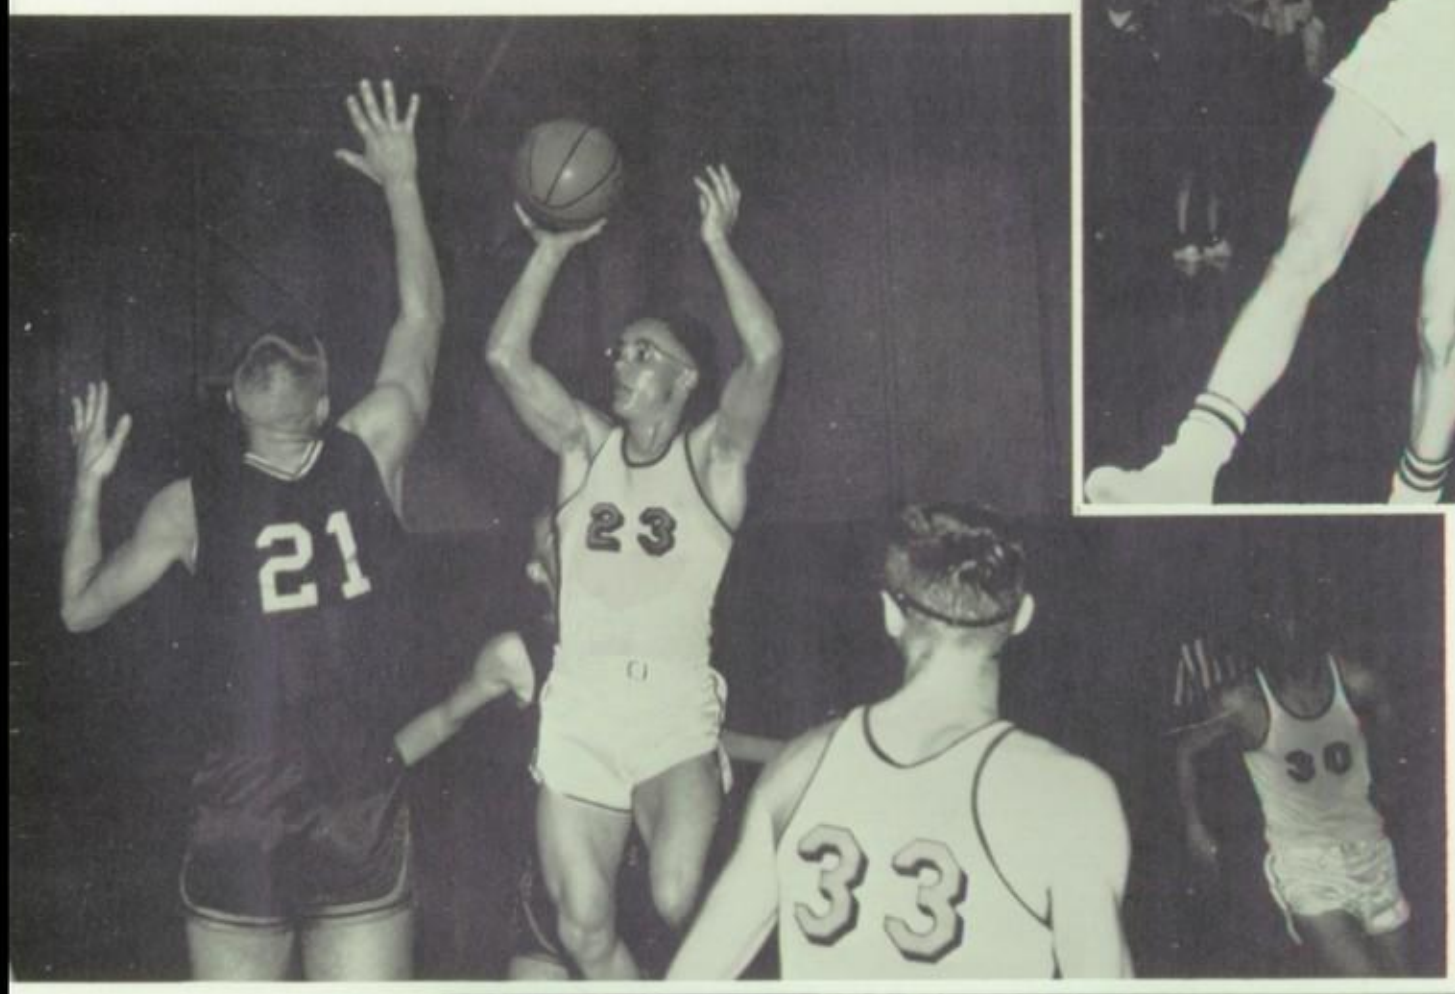
Sheridan emerged District Champions after defeating favored Riverton in the final game of the District Tournament held in Powell. Lander took third place and Casper settled for fourth.

This District had a strong showing at State Tournament by having three teams in the top four .positions. Riverton was second to Laramie, with Casper third, and Sheridan fourth.

Lynn Holscher outjumps his Cody opponent in Powell's narrow 2-point victory, avenging an earlier overtime loss to the archrival Cody team.

Iverson Makes All-Conference

Lynn Holscher gets up in the air for one of his jump-shots. Lynn was a strong rebounder and led the team in field goal percentage throughout the season with 33% and a 56% for the District Tournament.



Larry Lane drives in for a basket in the Panthers' first victory of the season over the Greybull Buffs.

Ron Olson is awarded the "Free Throw Trophy" by Coach Keith Bloom for having the best record at the "charity stripe." Ron, a Junior, added much spark to the Panther offense this year.

Sophomores

In September '63 one fateful
Autumn day,
The Sophomores gladly left their Summer's play
And entered the 10th year of their education
With reserved yet undoubted jubilation.
Awaiting the day when the freshmen would be our slaves,
By selling their services to others,
our funds it did raise.
Here we relate to you the facts:
We made them dress in gunny
slacks.
Thru all our work this is what we taught them,
That no matter what they were only lowly freshmen.
Then we made the scene for our dance called "Sugar Shack"
And the "hep" decorations—hot pink and black!
In all plays, we Sophomores did
act,
And in activities we never lacked!
In book learning we caught on fast,
Let's face it, this year was one great BLAST!

The Science Fair was held at the Northwest Community College on March 14. The contestants in the fair were both of high school and junior high age and came from neighboring counties. Among the various divisions were Botany, Zoology, and Physics. Entering his project in the Zoology division of the fair, Jim Allison won a $150 scholarship for his project. Jim went on to the State Science Fair at Casper and won a gold medal.

Clean-up for School Spirit Is Major Issue of the Year

December 2 through 6 was the week set aside for Clean-Up Program. Emphasis was placed on personal appearance. Each class could put up twelve posters and one bulletin board was given to each class. On Monday there was an assembly to kick it off. At 12:40 the students picked up trash around the school building. Also the cafeteria showcase was decorated showing the good and bad examples of student dress. Tuesday was the day to clean lockers, halls, and the inside of the building in general. Wednesday was orange and black day. Each class was judged on the number of students who wore orange and black. Thursday there was an assembly given by members of the council illustrating good and bad points of school spirit. Then there were some guest speakers; Mr. Kurtz, Mrs. Meidinger, and Mr. Samsel. Friday was the day to see the results. The points were tabulated and the SENIORS were the winners.

We are fortunate at Powell High School to have Denny Earhart as our Student Body President. He was chosen Student of the Month by the National Honor Society for the month of September. Dennis is the only person from the United States to go to the 1963 Ecumenical Youth Caravan at Sarawak, Borneo. He went as a representative of the United Presbyterian Church. Congratulations to you, Denny, for a job well done.

Representing the Powell Chapter of Future Farmers of America in the contest were eleven boys along with Fay Thompson and Connie Sutton the instructors in agriculture.

Powell competed in every contest with three boys on each judging team and one boy to weld and another to cut rafters. Some of the boys judged in more than one contest and others just judged in one.

The district public speaking contest was held in Powell on March 16. Representatives from the Meeteetse, Deaver and Powell Chapters spoke. Larry Fossen represented the Powell chapter and won second place. The topic of his speech was "Water Conservation."

Through the year the FHA girls worked hard in concession booths and various activities for points to be added up later. Those with the highest points would be given the opportunity to attend the State Convention at Laramie.

The FHA sponsored many functions closley associated with FFA. One of the highlights was the FHA-FFA Smorgasbord.

A slumber party and a brunch for the senior girls closed the year.

Glamourous models dressed in the latest fashions were the main attraction at the annual FHA Banquet. In their own interpretation of "clothes", they paraded around the room for the guests.

Gracie Watts won the trophy for the Best Girls' Exhibit in the District Science Fair with her project "Studies of Visual Perception." She then went to the State Science Fair and won a blue ribbon which entitled her to a trip to the Bi-State Fair at Boulder Colorado. At the Bi-State Fair she won the Amelia Earhart award for the outstanding girls' project. Her award consisted of a $2500 scholarship to any college and a $50 cash award. Gracie also received honorable mention for Denver Women's Society of Engineers.

The National Honor Society chose Gracie for Student of the Month for March because of her outstanding Science Fair project.

IN HONOR OF THE

400TH

1564 1964

Under the supervision of Gordon W. Wickstrom, Terry Waln, Junior art student, sculptures a bust of William Shakespeare.

On April 23rd the cast and crew of Twelfth Night honored the Bard with a special on-stage birthday party.

Shakespeare's TWELFTH NIGHT, by the Seniors

Directed by Gordon Wickstrom

Viola: What country, friends, is this?
Captain: This is Illyria, Lady.
Judy Ray as Viola and Rex Crumrine as the sea captain.

Sir Toby: Come, Sir Andrew, there's no remedy. The gentleman will for his honor's sake have one bout with you; he cannot by the duello avoid it; but he has promised me, as he is a gentleman and a soldier, he will not hurt you. Come on, to't.

Sir Andrew: Pray God he keep his oath!
Judy Ray as Viola, Garry Martin as Sir Toby Belch, Jack Franklin as Sir Andrew Aguecheck, and John Hawley as Fabian.

Left: Duke: There's for thy pains.
Clown: No pains, sir I take pleasure in singing, sir . . . Truly, sir, and pleasure will be paid one time or another.
Steve Halvorsen as the Clown.

Right: Olivia: I have said too much unto a heart of stone—And laid mine honor too unchary on't. There's something in me that reproves my fault; But such a headstrong potent fault it is—That it but mocks reproof.
Linda Baxter as Olivia and Judy Ray as Viola.

THE STORY OF THE PLAY

Viola and Sebastian, twins, are wrecked off the coast of Illyria. Both are separately rescued: when Viola arrives on shore believing her brother drowned, she enters in the service of the Duke Orsino. She adopts the habit of a boy, Cesario, in which guise she is chosen to woo on behalf of the duke the Countess Olivia. The countess comes out of mourning to fall in love with Cesario, adopting deceitful methods to make him come to see her more often. This he does, but to his distress, for he has fallen in love with the duke.

Sir Toby Belch, Olivia's Uncle, has in train a foolish knight, Sir Andrew Aguecheek, whose money he values. They amuse themselves by getting drunk in the middle of the night, much to the exasperation of the countess' steward Malvolio, a sort of Puritan. In revenge they play a trick on Malvolio making him believe that Olivia is in love with him. He appears before his lady who believes with some warrant that he is mad, and hands him over for care and cure to Sir Toby.

Cesario is challenged to fight by the cowardly Andrew. The duel might have turned out badly were it not for the arrival of Antonio, a sea captain who has rescued Sebastian. He saves Cesario from the duel in the mistaken belief that he is Sebastian. Cesario hears for the first time the name of Sebastian and takes fresh heart.

Sebastian appears. He is first accosted by duelists, and proves a ready fellow. Olivia then offers her hand in marriage to the supposed Cesario. Sebastian accepts. Later the duke visits Olivia where he learns of Cesario's betrothal. It does not take long to see that Olivia has been mistook, since Sebastian appears, reveals his relation to Cesario, who reveals herself at last as a girl. The duke realizes that his fondness for the "boy" is convertible, and agrees to marry the true "her" that she is.

The madly used Malvolio is set free, and the tricks which the play has played on all its folk are set to rights.

Upper right: Duke: "Be clamorous and leap all civil bounds—Rather than make unprofited return."
Dennis Earhart as the Duke and Judy Ray as Viola.

Right: Sir Toby: "Confine? I'll confine myself no finer than I am. These clothes are good enough to drink in and so be these boots too. An' they be not, let them hang themselves in their own straps."
Garry Martin as Sir Toby and Barb LaFarge as Maria.

Bottom: Sebastian: "I would not by my will have troubled you; But since you make your pleasure of your pains, I will no further chide you."
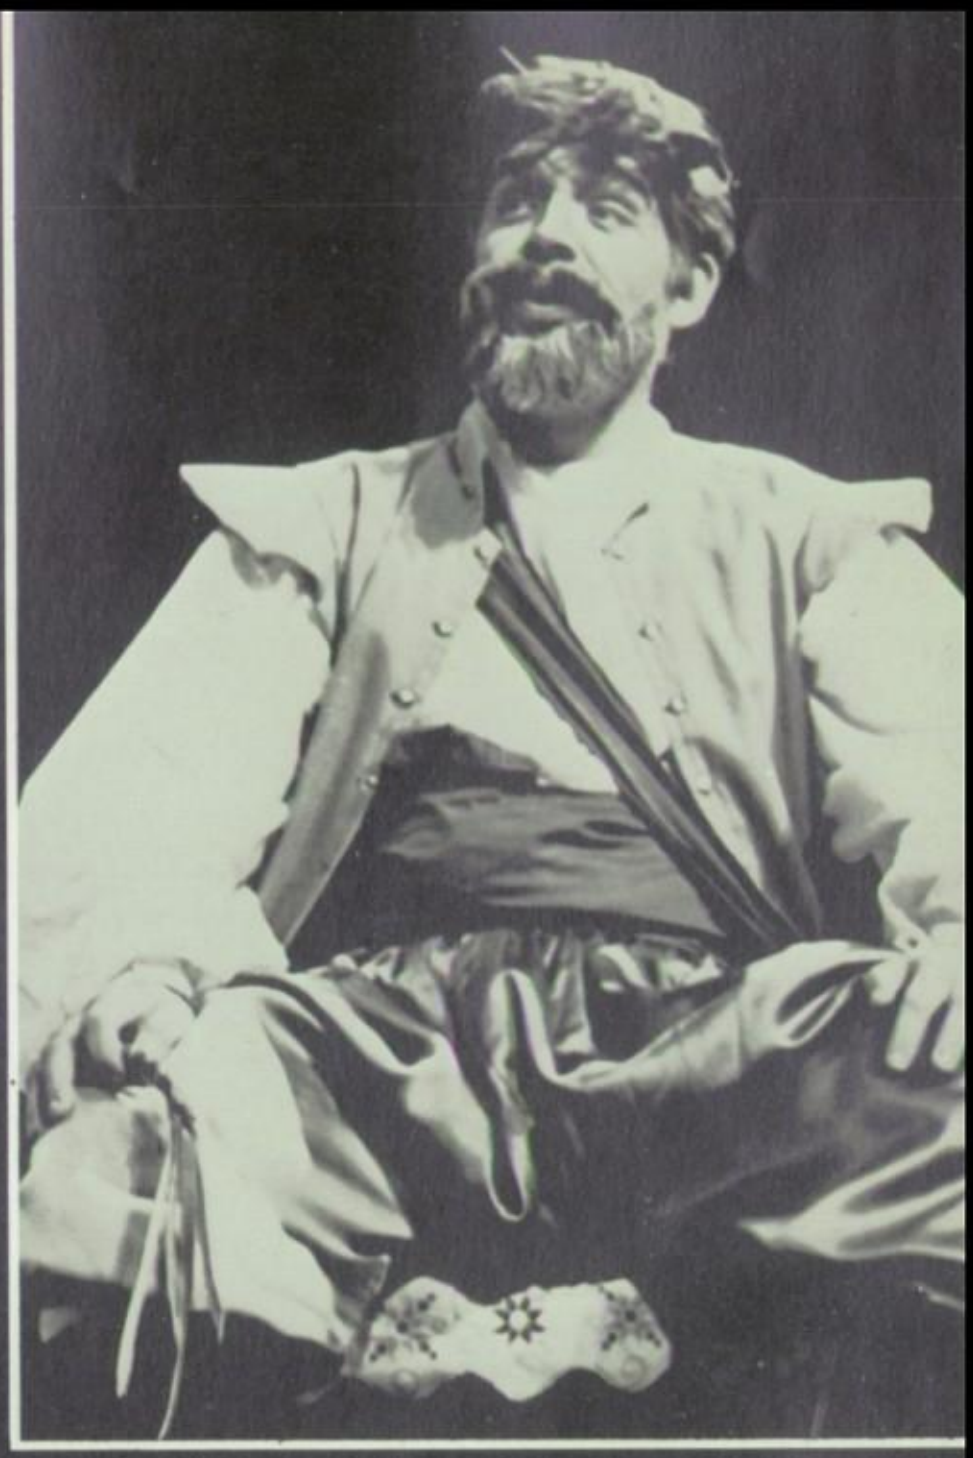
Tom VanPetten as Sebastian and Mike Johnson as Antonio.

Upper left: Terry Jones as Valentine and Billie Marhenke as a page boy. Here Valentine is telling the Duke that he was not admitted into Countess Olivia's house.



Right: Garry Martin gave a splendid characterization of Sir Toby Belch.

Honoring the 400th Anniversary Celebration

"A great while ago the world begun,
With hey, ho, the wind and the rain;
But that's all one, our play is done,
And we'll strive to please you everyday."

and Mike Whitmore. To the right, Terry Waln, David Fales, Joe Feusner, Steve Halvorsen, David Dearcorn, and Kayleen Jones. Both of these ensembles received superior ratings at District Music Festival. We should be very proud of our Music Department. We were the only school at District that received ones in Band, Choir and Orchestra. Congratulations!

Leaders of the Marching Band

These girls put in a busy year twirling for all the football games. They worked hard to give us many varied routines. Remember their Bill Bailey routine?

Getting ready for the big game. One of the many night games. The band in full uniform played many tunes during time outs and then at half-time made a performance out on the field.

Half-time Entertainers

Kandi Havig, head twirler, led the marching band in a criss-cross formation. This was the day we played Cody and also the Seniors were honored. There were seven Seniors. They are Tom Van Petten, Jack Franklin, George Ries, Lynn Holscher, Steve Halvorsen, Kandi Havig, and Valerie Cabre. Everyone enjoyed and appreciated the band coming out with a different show for every half-time home game.

Superior Rating Earned by

Students who were members of the All-State Orchestra are Shirley Onstine playing bass; Martha Vontz, violin; Susan Onstine, viola; Sharon Ando, cello; and Jeana Jacobs, bass. These students made tape recorded auditions and were selected from students all over the state to be members of the All-State Orchestra.

"Showtime on Broadway"

"Something Wonderful" happened when the Pop Group sang "In the Blue of the Evening" while that "Old Devil Moon" was shining down on January 28, 1964. "Side By Side" they presented their annual program "Showtime on Broadway."

The group thrilled the audience with their "Imagination" from "The Telephone Hour" to the haunting melody of "Shalom." Other selections sung by the 24 voices were "Everything's Coming Up Roses," "Lullaby of Broadway" and "Laura."

Besides presenting a program, the Pop Group provided entertainment at many banquets, dances and community functions.

Mr. Donald Pihlaja has been the director of the Powell High School Choir for six years. At the end of the 1963-64 school year, Mr. Pihlaja took a leave of absence for one year to attend the University of Colorado. This has been a big year for Mr. Pihlaja with the annual concerts, the Pop Group show, and Music Festival being among the major activities. By some coincidence the State Music Festival in Casper coincided with the arrival of Mr. Pihlaja's first child, Geoffrey Blake.

The Powell A Cappella Choir

under the direction of Mr. Donald F. Pihlaja, walked away with superior ratings at District Music Festival this year. There were fourteen ensembles and soloists who received ones at District Festival which qualified them for State Festival in Casper.

The Choir made five appearances this year. Along with the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts, they traveled to Cody to sing with the Cody Choir.

Commencement was the last event of the year for the choir. Two selections, "O Clap Your Hands" and "Jubilate" were chosen for the occasion.

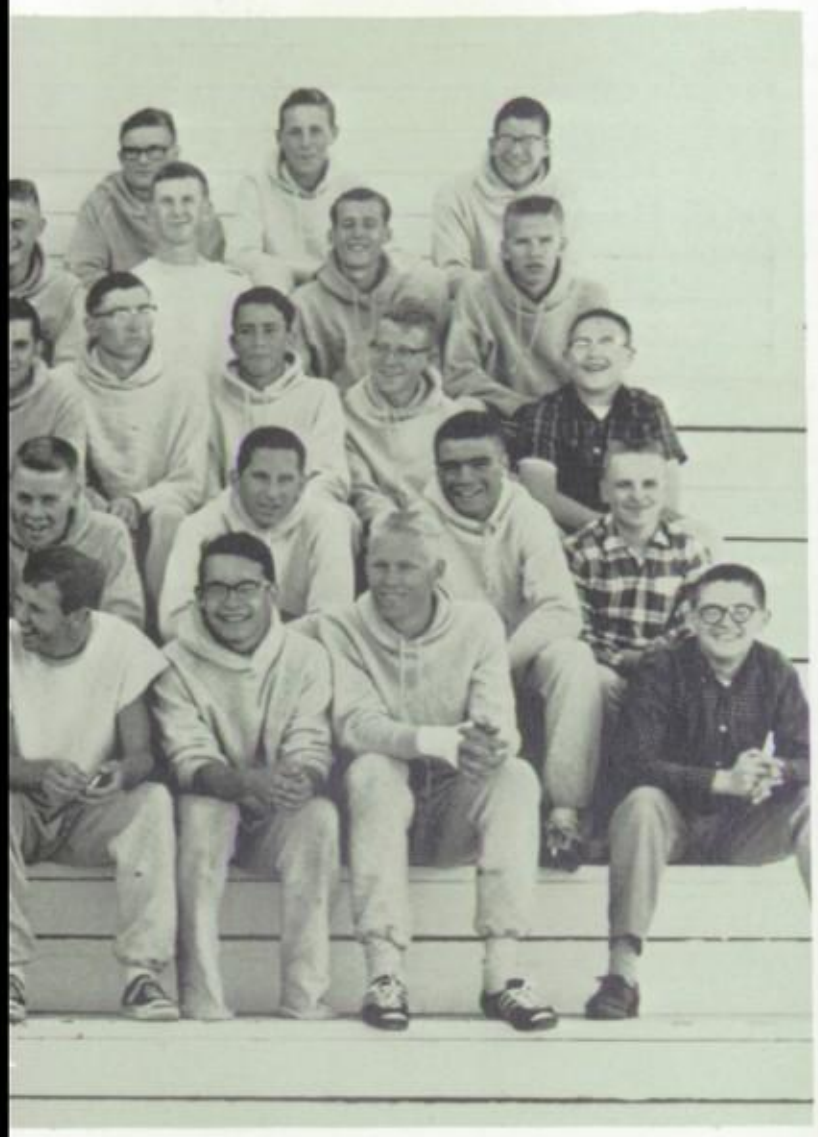
Charles Lawrence, receiver of the Roundtable's "Outstanding Track Trophy," is taking the lead at the half-way mark in the 880 yard run. Charles ran the half mile in 2:05.9 this year, second only to the school record time of 2:05.2 set in 1925 by Buck Northrup.

District



These top three place winners of their events at District earned a trip to State at Riverton. Russ Miller, 2nd—shot put; Charles Lawrence, 3rd—880; and Stan Christensen, tie for 2nd —high jump.

Stan Christensen, who high jumped 5'10", came within one inch of the school record this year.

Seniors Attending PHS First Semester but Not Graduating With Us.

High School will live in our hearts forever

Getting caps and gowns took a couple of hours unless you took cuts.

Garry Martin finally reaches the window to pay for his cap and gown and also to receive his reserved tickets for Graduation.

Larry Lane, Kenny Iverson, Harry Ley, Doc Lee and other Seniors rode bicycles to school during that last week.

ation

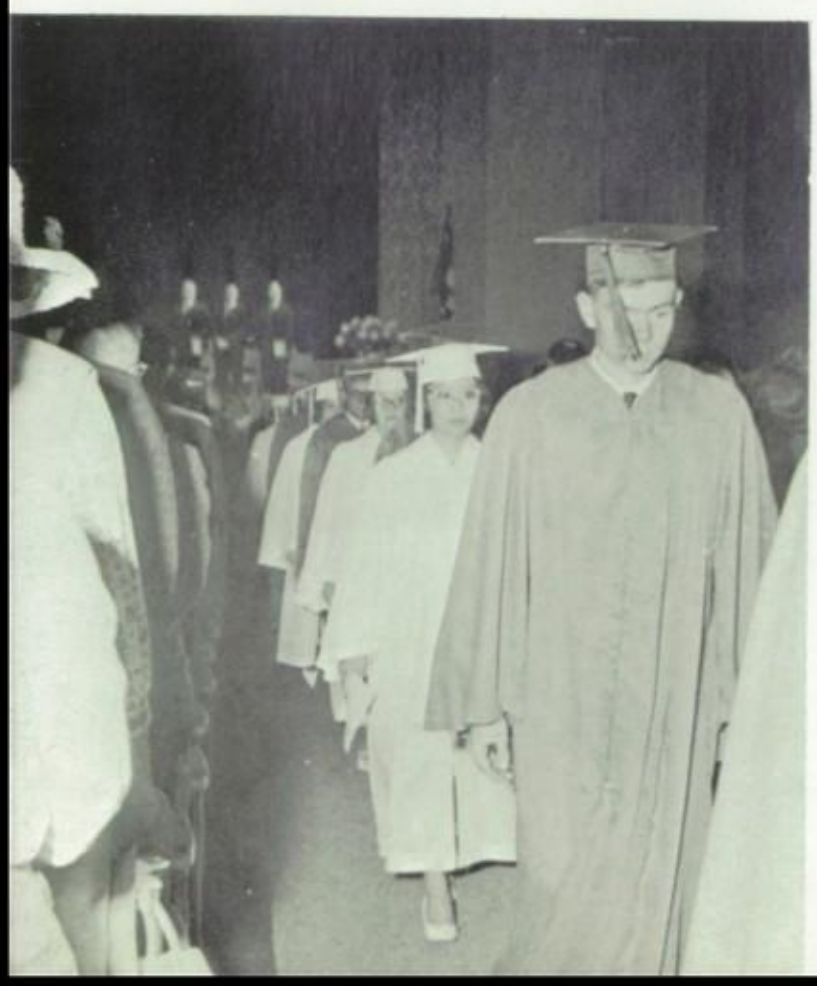
Next?

Standing in the hallway of the auditorium, the Seniors prepare themselves for Commencement and Baccalaureate. Landa Snyder doesn't want her hair smashed so she waits till the last minute to put her cap on. Watch out, Doc, you're on Candid Camera.

That Final Week

Every year it is Virginia Johnson's duty to take the money for the caps and gowns. It was a special deal for her this year because Carol Sue, her daughter, went through the line.

George Eckhardt takes a step to "who knows where." He led the Seniors during Commencement and Baccalaureate Exercises.



Dr. Marvel's two letters:

No mon
No fun
Your son

Too bad
So sad
Your dad.

The faces of Seniors now reflect serious thoughts.

"We'll Get You

Presented by

Garry Martin served as Master of Ceremonies. Cheryl Kessel, Sharon Adams, Landa Snyder, and Bobbie Pyle willed a pair of shorty pajamas to Mike

The Inner Chambers of the "Finky Faculty." Mr. Schmidt (Larry Hart) asks Mr. Blake to call the roll.

What is the future for Barb Groen, Valedictorian.

Hey, Jim, Is a Blue Bird Blue?

Larry Noble, the handsome hunter, rescues Jerry Tollman, Little Hood Riding Red, from the big bad wolf, Rich Oberosler, and they lived hapily ever after.

Poo Jameson and Larry Lane wore Itsy Bitsy Teeny Weeny Yellow Polka Dot Bikinis.

In the End"

the Class of '64

Ketchum to keep his knees free and to Terry Harvey a can of Right Guard to keep his car sweet smelling.

The PHS Beatles: Judy Ray, Kerry Sedwick, Steve Halvorsen, and Tom Van Petten.

"Old Seniors Never Die–

Working on the chain gang are Lynn Holscher, Don Cozzens, Bill Hart, and Danny Bovee.

They Just Fade Away"

Larry Noble willed to Mr. Gordon Wickstrom the "horse collar."
